

IBTS Library, Irish Blood Transfusion Service
National Blood Centre, James's St, Dublin 8

Hours of Operation:

Library Desk Service: Monday to Friday 9am - 5pm

The Library itself is open 24 hours with swipe in required out of hours.

Access our Virtual Library on the Intranet anytime at <http://intranet/library>

Visits by non-IBTS staff is by appointment from 10am - 4pm

Research Officer/Librarian:

Niamh O'Sullivan at niamh.osullivan@ibts.ie

Library Assistant:

Janet Kelleher at janet.kelleher@ibts.ie

Phone: (01) 4322848 or email library@ibts.ie

“Stop searching; start finding; ask the Library”

Other Library Roles Include:

- Administering the IBTS Intranet
- Editing the IBTS staff newsletter I-ByTeS
- Organising Lunchtime Learning Seminars
- Managing the IBTS Digital Photo Archive

www.giveblood.ie

Irish Blood
Transfusion Service
Seirbhís Fuilaidriúcháin na hÉireann

IBTS Library Services

“The mission of the IBTS Library is to promote excellence in learning, education and research within the Irish Blood Transfusion Service by providing an innovative library service for all staff and by enhancing the dissemination of information consistent with the organisation's value of learning”

DID YOU KNOW?

We do literature searches and other research queries on request

You can sign up to receive email alerts on your chosen subjects

We provide advice and support for staff doing further studies

We can help with your conference posters & presentations

We can arrange access and letters of introduction to other libraries

We have the print version of core journals and older material

There are over 30 Library Guides on the Intranet

We can order in articles that are not available in the Library

We have books available for loan in a range of related subjects

You can log into your IBTS account at 3 Library PCs

You can use the Library's Quiet Study Area (WIFI available)

We provide training in Library and searching skills

You can access our e-journals via the "Virtual Library" on the Intranet